

VISITMANTUA

The Splendors of the Gonzagas

Visiting the Ducal Palace of Mantua, headquarters of the Gonzaga family's dominion of the city, you'll be enchanted by the paintings by Mantegna, Pisanello, Rubens and Giulio Romano, and by the precious tapestries designed by Raphael.

In the private apartment of Isabella d'Este you'll learn about the "First Lady of the Renaissance".

After a visit to the Old Town - where the great Basilica of St. Andrea by Leon Battista Alberti is located - you'll finally discover Palazzo Te: the suburban villa designed by Giulio Romano for the leisure time of Federico II Gonzaga, Duke of Mantua.
